

John Kimbrough

Native of New Mexico. 20 years in the construction trade. In 2000 moved to Denver and worked in staging and production. Returned to Albuquerque in 2006 to open a satellite office. Retired in 2012 and found out how boring retirement can be. Found Pickleball in 2014 and have played daily since. Became a venue coordinator in 2016 at Manzano Mesa. Served on the executive board since 2017. Ambassador to the Manzano Mesa courts. Presently working on the committee to expand the number of courts and to improve the facilities.